

Thomas Allen Wines

"Wines without compromise"

Thank you and welcome to the TRANSIT LOUNGE

What is the Transit Lounge?

A transit lounge is 'a waiting area where people wait between different stages of a journey'.

And your Thomas Allen Wines journey has just begun. As the team would've suggested Thomas Allen make wines in limited quantities, the majority of which are sold directly to our wine club members. So our members can continue to enjoy and access these wines, we have ceased taking on new wine club members, and introduced our Transit Lounge.

How do I get to wait in the Transit Lounge?

1. Your purchase of 12 bottles today will open the door to the Transit Lounge

- Our Members Reward cleanskin pack does not contribute to your initial 12 bottle purchase.
- Full price is charged until a wine club position is offered to you.

2. We will contact you when a Club1733 membership position becomes available, at which time your order above has already confirmed your position. You will then join the normal membership purchasing cycle of 12 bottles per year - six bottles in May and October.
